History of the Club Sandwich: There are several speculations about how the club sandwich originated. According to one story, the club sandwich was created at the famous New York Saratoga Club-House in 1894. Another story from a 1916 publication reported that a man invented the sandwich after throwing together whatever ingredients he could find in the pantry, including two extra slices of bread. He so liked his invention that he shared it with fellow members of a club he belonged to, hence the name "club sandwich."
